

Jewish life in Bolszowce, 1930-s. From the Popik family album

Jewish life in Bolszowce, 1930-s. From the Popik family album

Galleria.loadTheme("/sites/all/themes/stark/js/galleria/themes/classic/galleria.classic.min.js");
Galleria.run('#galleria-slider');

The gallery presents selected photographs from the album of Popic family, a big Jewish family which lived for generations in the city of Bolszowce. Almost all family members – the brothers Uli, Yaakov, Shaya, Moishe, Faivish and their sister Reizl, were killed with their spouses and children in Holocaust.

The only survivors – the brothers Buche (Baruch) and David, sons of Reizl, who managed to escape to Kazakhstan before the Nazi occupation, took with them a family album. It was generously borrowed to us by Zvi Gershzon, Buche's son who lives now in Givat Zeev, Israel. The unique album photos expose different aspects of Jewish life in Galicia shtetl on the eve of its destruction.

The gallery presents selected photographs from the album of Popic family, a big Jewish family which lived for generations in the city of Bolszowce. Almost all family members – the brothers Uli, Yaakov, Shaya, Moishe, Faivish and their sister Reizl, were killed with their spouses and children in Holocaust.

The only survivors – the brothers Buche (Baruch) and David, sons of Reizl, who managed to escape to Kazakhstan before the Nazi occupation, took with them a family album. It was generously borrowed to us by Zvi Gershzon, Buche's son who lives now in Givat Zeev, Israel. The unique album photos expose different aspects of Jewish life in Galicia shtetl on the eve of its destruction.