The image shows an open, handwritten birth registration book from Stanislawow, 1931, specifically pages 121 and 130. The pages are filled with columns of handwritten entries, including names, dates, and other details. Many of the entries are crossed out with blue ink, indicating they are not valid or have been corrected. The handwriting is in a cursive script, typical of the era. The book is resting on a wooden surface, and the background is slightly blurred, showing a chair and some other items.
