
On the Margins of Modernism: Decentering Literary Dynamics

Author: Kronfeld, Chana

Title: On the Margins of Modernism: Decentering Literary Dynamics

Publisher: University of California Press

Publishing place: Berkeley

Date: 1996

Publication Language: English

Subjects: Belles-lettres

Remarks:

Including the two following chapters, which a significant part of them was devoted to Moshe Leib Halpern;

159-193 – 'Chapter 7: David Fogel and Moyshe Leyb Halpern: Liminal Moments in Hebrew and Yiddish Literary History'

194-223 – 'Chapter 8 – The Yiddish Poem Itself: Reading in Halpern, Markish, Hofshteyn, and Sutzkever'

More about Halpern, according to index, and so to Avraham Ben-Yizhak, Dan Pagis, Ruth Weiss, and additional references to Shmuel Yosef Agnon, Paul Celan, Uri Zevi Greenberg, Itzik Manger, Moshe Nadir, Eisig Silberschlag, and Dov Sadan.

Source URL:<http://www.jgaliciabukovina.net/node/186250>