

History of Zionism: A Handbook and Dictionary

Author: Edelheit, Hershel and Abraham J. Edelheit

Title: History of Zionism: A Handbook and Dictionary

Publisher: Westview

Publishing place: Boulder, Colorado

Date: 2000

Publication Language: English

Subjects: Nationalism

Press and Printing

Politics

Remarks:

Especially the sub-values on Zionist organizations in those countries (wherein there are references to Galicia): 'Austria' (381—383, 424, 430); 'Polin' (406—409, 428—429, 434—435).

449-480 - 'Publications':

Especially the sub-value 'Polin' (462—464, 478—479): including references to the daily newspaper 'Chwila' (Lwów, 1919-1939), 'Ha-mirpe' [Kraków 1904—1921/ 1922 (463—464)], 'Nowy Dziennik' (Kraków, 1918-1939), 'Ha-sharon' [Lwów, 1895 (463)], and to 'Mahzikei Ha-Dat' (479). In addition, including mentions of the weekly newspaper 'Folksfriend' (Sanok, 1909-1914), the monthly newspaper 'Ha-Mizrach' (Kraków, 1903-1904) and 'Der Yid' (Kraków, 1899-1903, 464).

574-609 - 'Zionist Leadership':

Including sub-values on the following persons: Shmuel Yosef Agnon (574-575), Nathan Birnabum (579), Matrin Buber (580), Zevi Perez Chajes (580), Israel Elded (582), Uri Zevi Greenberg (587), David Horowitz (589), Naphtali Herz Imber (590; see also 326-327 - on 'HaTikwa'), Leon Kellner (591-592), Pinhas Lavon (593), Oscar Marmorek, Jacob Isaac Niemirower (596), Alfred Nossig (597), Emanuel Ringelblum (599), Ignacy Schiper (601), and Arie Tartakower (605).

> In addition, there is also a value on Yehoshua Radler-Feldmann - Rabbi Binyamin (482).

Source URL:<http://www.jgaliciabukovina.net/node/186405>